

1. Corrected reference list formatting after checking the example in the course pack.
2. Provided new table which included more details about the content of the report hence improved the document with clear and descriptive table.
3. Improved the recommendation section by clearly stating what steps company is supposed to take and why. As it was given as requirement in written 2.1 description.